November 2, 2015

Cleveland, OH – Affinity Classics LLC announced today that it has delivered the first College Chairs to the Alumni Association of Cleveland State University. The CSU Alumni Association ordered the Affinity Classic Alumni Chair for their new offices located in the Mather Mansion on Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. Cleveland State also makes these chairs available to Alumni and Friends of the University through the Alumni Association's On-line Shop at <http://www.csualumni.com/spirit/merchandise/>.

Brian Breittholz, Assistant Vice President for Alumni Relations and Executive Director of the Cleveland State University Alumni Association has stated "Our new Cleveland State Alumni Chairs are simply stunning. The quality and craftsmanship beats out any other collegiate chair I have seen and the look is sophisticated and elegant. I receive compliments on the chairs from every alumnus who visits."

Affinity Classics management expects to expand sales from internal purchases by CSU to the broader market of CSU Alumni and Alumni of Cleveland Marshall College of Law in 2016. Cleveland State enjoys 112,000 alumni of whom 80 percent reside in northeastern Ohio. Cleveland State's Alumni Chairs are manufactured, finished, and upholstered by Affinity Classic's Amish craftsmen in Holmes County, Ohio, located 75 miles south of Cleveland.
